JULY PAYMENTS

Disbursements on Local Securities and Government Bonds Total $784,850.

CAPITAL BANK FIGURES

Capital, Surplus, Loans, and Individual Deposits as of June 4. Stocks.

By L. A. PLEMING.

July disbursements on account of in-July disbursements on account of In-terest and dividend payments in Wash-ington will not be very far from $1,00,000. The aggregate account of securities listed on the Washington exchange will be $284.500, estimating the percentage of gov-ernment bond interest and the dividends paid to local shareholders in Mergenthuier and Lanston monotype, both of which are heavily held in Washington. The largest single distribution will be by the Capital Traction Company, which pays 1:7-9 per cent on its $21,00,000 capitalisation, of $180,000.

National banks paying with July 1 will distribute $118,000, trust companies $128,000.

Naturally a part of the distribution will go to investors in other cities, but the great bulk will be distributed among local investors, and should have a perceptible effect in the local market.

The dividends and interest payments of the various corporations are as follows: lows: thaler and Lanston monotype, both of

New York Stocks.

There was comparatively little business transacted on the New York market, and, as a rule, values were slightly lower to 1-23-4 of a point off.

To some observers it looked as if the market had been sold to a standstill, and that the next movement might be a rally, but the general sentiment seemed to encourage the theory that as the Union Pacific riddle would go, the lint would.

London was a seller at the siart.

London was a seller at the start, but did not press heavily after the first hour, the movement being accredfirst hour, the movement being accred-ited to the rumor that the Union Pa-cific had been compelled to ask for a receiver for its Southern Pacific a receiver for its Southern Pacific stock.

The limited trading reflected the desire of the street to await the settlement of this matter. In the meantime the only strain in the financial markets seems to be in Berlin, where liquidation is being forced to meet the semi-samual settlements and the disbursaments falling due with July 1.

The crop outlook is greatly improved by seasonable weather and showers, and this helps.

Wall Street looks with favor on the proposed currency legislation, as it will put the country's currency system on a sounder and more clastic basis.

This statement is important as bearing on the Union Pacific-Southern Pacific sit-uation.

We are reliably informed that the International Pump Company finances have been reconstructed by the Guggenheims through banks and trust companies here, which means that this is the first industrial corporation practically to be assisted financially by the banks, and should show a better feeling among these banks as to the future because they have been turning down all propositions up to date.

washington STOCK EXCHANGE. has been very bearing to American Can, but now thinks it will be one of the built side.

E. & C. Randolph—The weakness early in London was probably on the report that was telegraphed from St. Paul to the effect that the United States District Court had extended a decree providing a roceiver to take over the 125,00,00 Southern Pacific. Up to now we have confirmation of it. While this sounds very cold, yet in the end it might be the best thing for the Union Pacific. Crop reports should be watched most carefully from now on.

We cannot help but see that the new turnency bill should help the situation and not hurt it, unless the politicians make a had bill of it before the end comes.

Make a bad bill of it before the end comes.

Moler-The new currency bill was printed in full in Thursday's American. It is destined to be regarded as a very builten factor. Its provisions, if adopted, would make the currency of the country more elastic and on a sounder basic han ever before. With the twelve regional Federal reserve banks under the control of a Federal board, the government will in future so dominate the money conditions throughout the country that there would be no hasis left for future charges of the existence of Money Trusts controlled by Wall Street interests.

It is the biggest thing the administration has yet attempted for the country's general welfare, and if it can be passed its adoption with the new tailf bill should make our fundamental conditions stronger than ever before. Therefore, with such good crop prospects, a revival of general business activity should certainly develop in the fall.

Mrs. Katherine Woods So Tells Congressional Union at Meeting Last Night.

Mrs. Katherine Woods, who has studied political and social science at Harvard University, developed more fully reasons offered by Senator Ashurst of Arisons in reporting out the suffrage amendment as to the Justice of woman's claim for enfranchisement at the regular weekly meeting of the Congressional Union in the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce last night.

Mrs. Woods paid special attention to an argument brought forward by the "antis" against woman suffrage, which is the claim that only a small minority of the women of the country want the ballot, She answered that world movements are not conscieved and agitated by the many, but are brought forward by the few and the many are educated in their value. In support of her statement, she cited the history of the great movements of the past.

Miss Elizabeth Hrown told of the work of the local associated charities. Miss Emily Perry and Mrs. Geneview Stone, wife of the Representative from Illinois urged all present to help circulate the petitions addressed to the Senate on behalf of the amendment.
